AGENDA
10:00am-12:00pm	“Discerning and Explaining Pattern,” a research presentation by Grace Davie (University of Exeter)
12:00pm-1:00pm	Lunch
1:00pm-2:00pm	Questions and discussion regarding morning presentation (moderator Solange Lefebvre)
2:00pm-2:30pm	Coffee break
2:30pm-4:00pm	Assessing and developing international research collaborations: dialogue and discussion (moderator Solange Lefebvre)

Professor Davie will outline and reflect on her approach to the sociology of religion, from her initial research investigations to the transformation of a research approach over an academic career. She will then apply these research lenses to a discussion of comparative research in the sociology of religion, including her experiences within the French, Swedish and U.S. context.

Professor Davie will discuss the projects below to illustrate the rewards and challenges of comparative work:

- Welfare and Religion in a European Perspective:
<http://www.crs.uu.se/Research/former-research-projects/WREP/>
- Welfare and Values in Europe:
<http://www.crs.uu.se/Research/former-research-projects/WaVE/>
- Marking Transitions and Meaning across the Life
